SANTORINI, GREECE AS SEEN ON SCREEN

It's easy to see why the location scouts of Santorini Blue (out in June), a film about a couple trying to rekindle their romance, chose the idyllic Greek island as a setting. Create your own lofty hideaway at the Suites of the Gods hotel (thomascook.com), perched on the cliffs above the port of Athinios. As well as the views of the brilliantly blue Aegean Sea, the all-suite, boutique hotel also features a kooky candlelit, cave-set spa, where you can enjoy anything from a full-body honey treatment to a deep tissue massage (naturally) next to your loved one. >
